Leverick Bay Resort invites all anglers and enthusiasts to its first Witch Hunt Fishing Tournament

Virgin Gorda, BVI, September 18, 2009: The sport of fishing will be at its best in the British Virgin Islands when Leverick Bay Resort and Marina hosts its first Leverick's Witch Hunt Fishing Tournament, the weekend of October 9 – 11, 2009. The weekend long fishing tournament will bring together the IBT 2009 anglers, Club Náutico of San Juan Members, friends and USVI and BVI anglers, as well as amateur enthusiasts for a friendly competition in one of the best fishing waters in the Caribbean, the Anegada Drop.

“This will be a fishing tournament like no other,” expressed Nick Willis, Manager of Leverick Bay Resort and Marina. “This will be a friendly fishing competition with a clear goal, the friendly gathering of fellow fisherman from Puerto Rico, USVI and BVI,” he added.

The Tournament will unfold over a three-day weekend. Registration and fishing permits will be held during Friday afternoon from 4pm to 7pm. There will be no registration fee, only a service charge of $350.00 per angler and $180.00 for none anglers. This will cover all entertainment including the evening BBQs buffets where the catches of the day will be cooked, island style. Participants can also benefit for fuel discounts and also no charge for dockage on Leverick Bay Marina.

The tournament will have an open format. Points will be given for different species such as Mahi Mahi, Wahoo & Yellow Fin Tuna. Additional points will be given for the tag and release of Blue Marlins, White Marlins and Sail Fish.

There will be Daily activities, beach excursions and picnics for non-angler participants. A Witches and Pirates costume party will be held Saturday evening. Prizes for best costumes will be given out.

An award ceremony will be held on Sunday evening with live entertainment. Prizes include, trophies, free vacation packages, fishing gear and lots of surprises. This will be an event you wouldn't want to miss. Join us in the beautiful British Virgin Island for a few days of camaraderie and competition.

You can contact Nick Willis at 284-542-4010 or Javier Lopez at 787 529-8064 or visit www.leverickbaymarina.com, www.leverickbay.com to confirm your visit or for more information. Fishing is a great way to relax and spend time with friends and family in exotic places with beautiful sceneries. Make Leverick's Witch Hunt Fishing Tournament your next weekend escapade.

About Virgin Gorda

Virgin Gorda is the third largest island (after Tortola and Anegada) of the British Virgin Islands, covers an area of 21 km ², Christopher Columbus gave the name to the particular shape of its territory, and its main town Spanish Town is in the southwest of the island. An unusual geological formation known as "The Baths" located in the south of the island makes Virgin Gorda one of the favorite tourist destinations. The Baths beaches show evidence of the islands volcanic origins. For more information on the Virgin Gorda and the British Virgin Islands visit www.bviturism.com.
